NOTICE

It has been reported that few students are involving themselves in act of indiscipline, in both old and new campus of the institute. They are coming to the institute, without wearing proper college uniform, involving in quarrel and disputes with other students, inviting outsiders to the institute for dispute mitigation and are staying inside the institute, long after the closing of the academic activities of the institute at 5:00 PM. The above mentioned acts of indiscipline and misconduct will not be tolerated by the institute. The institute will take stern disciplinary action against the students, reported or found, involved and guilty in such act of misconduct.

All staff and faculties of the institute, along with anti-ragging squad and committee, student discipline committee are advised to remain vigil, to report and to intervene, if they observe or are reported about such act of indiscipline and misconduct. No student will be allowed to stay inside the old and new campus, including canteen and playground, after 5:00 PM, unless they are involved in curricular or co-curricular activities, under close supervision of concerned faculty or staff. Moreover, students not wearing proper uniform will not be allowed to enter the campus from 20/08/2024 onwards.

The matter must be treated very seriously and with highest priority.
